

Onsite Area Studies Program

INFORMATION SHEET for Spring/Summer 2017

APPLICATION DUE: October 31, 2016

PROGRAM SCHEDULE

Program Period: April 3, 2017 to August 9, 2017

April 3 and 4: Arrival Period

April 6-7: Orientation

April 10: Opening Ceremony

April 11: Classes begin

August 9: Closing Ceremony

August 10-15: Departure from Hiroshima

*Note: period you allowed to stay after the completion of program is until the earlier of expiry of the period of visa status you hold OR decent period of days you generally need to move out of the residence (ca. 2-3 weeks)

LIST OF CLASSES

Required for all students:

1. Japanese Language Classes (more than 6 times / wk): will be assigned to the class based on Japanese proficiency
2. Japanese language and culture (Introductory class)

Selective Classes (depends on the level of English proficiency):

Independent Study	Japanese Economy
Issues in Contemporary Japan	Practical Management Theory
Japanese International Relations	Theory and Practice of Budo
Japanese Law and Society	International Education Internship

*The above courses are subject to change

ACCOMMODATION

Hiroshima University of Economics offers our exchange students studio type of student housing. As renting a room/apartment in Japan is quite complicated, and they do not normally provide short-term (5-6 months) lease, you will need to stay in the accommodation we offer. Detailed accommodation information and request form will be mailed to the students who are admitted to the program.

SCHOLARSHIP

A limited number of scholarships are available from HUE (Hiroshima University of Economics) to exchange students.

HUE – monthly stipend of 50,000 yen (April - August)

A separate application form and certificate of enrollment (signed by international coordinator) are needed if you are applying for scholarship. Please note that you have to have a good GPA to apply for scholarship.*

We will notify international student coordinator/advisor once we made the decision on the scholarship grantees.

*To apply for HUE scholarship, you need to have at least 2.30 on a 3.00 scale.

Participation Fee: JPY 220,000

OSA Participant has to complete the payment before coming. This amount will be applied to their rent, utilities (water/gas/electricity/internet) and program operation.