

INFORMATION SHEET for Spring/Summer 2019

APPLICATION DUE: October 31, 2018

PROGRAM SCHEDULE

Program Period: April 5, 2019 to August 5, 2019

April 2, 3 or 4: Arrival Period

April 5: Orientation

April 10: Opening Ceremony

April 11: Classes begin

July 26: last day of classes

July 30-August 5: Exam period

July 31-August 18: Departure from Hiroshima (those who don't have exams during the above period may leave from July 31)

*Note: After completion of the program, short-term international students are required to depart Japan within a 2-3 week period.

LIST OF CLASSES

Required for all students:

1. Japanese Language Classes (3 classes/w) – You will be placed to one of the 4 different levels based on your Japanese proficiency
2. Study on International Issues and Challenges

Selective Classes (3-8 classes):

Independent Study

Issues in Contemporary Japan

Intercultural Communication

Japanese Law and Society

Japanese Economy

Practical Management Theory

International Trade

Japan and the Environment

Japanese Religion and Culture

Theory and Practice of Budo

Environment and Business

**The above courses are subject to change.*

ACCOMMODATION

Hiroshima University of Economics provides student housing (studio-type) for exchange students. Student will be required to stay at the assigned room. Students are responsible for monthly rent and utility expenses (gas, water and electricity) during their stay unless otherwise stated. Detailed accommodation information and request forms will be mailed to the students after admission to the program.

SCHOLARSHIP

A limited number of scholarships are available from HUE to exchange students.

HUE Scholarship – 45,000 yen monthly (April to August, but for August it is 22,500 (a half amount))

In applying for this scholarship, each student will need to submit a separate application form and certificate of enrollment (signed by international coordinator). Please note that the scholarship application requires a minimum GPA (of 2.30 on a 3.00 scale). Approval of scholarships will be notified to the International student coordinator/advisor after confirmation.